HIGH LIGHT

by Marco Ciceri and Axel Schoterman

MARCO CICERI

AXEL SCHOTERMAN

Marco Ciceri and Axel Schoterman are Berlin-based visual artists who share an interest in light, motion and the boundary between physical and digital.

Marco Ciceri (IT) is a media artist working across live performance and installation. Combining sound, custom technologies, motorised mechanics and moving image, he has presented work at Triennale Milano, the Barbican Centre, La Casa Encendida, Onassis Stegi and festivals including CTM, Berlin Atonal and MUTEK. After Marshmallow Laser Feast and Pfadfinderei, he developed long-term collaborations with Alessandro Cortini, Grand River and Boris Wilsdorf (Einstürzende Neubauten).

Axel Schoterman (NL) is a visual artist and director working with CGI and motion across live A/V and video installation. His work examines how we assign meaning and value to digital images. He has presented work for Triennale Milano, Draaimolen Festival and Anyma, with residencies at SIM (Iceland) and Aqtushetii (Georgia), and has been Art and Creative Director at Builders Club and Dada Projects, leading campaigns for Nike, Apple and McLaren.

First prototype

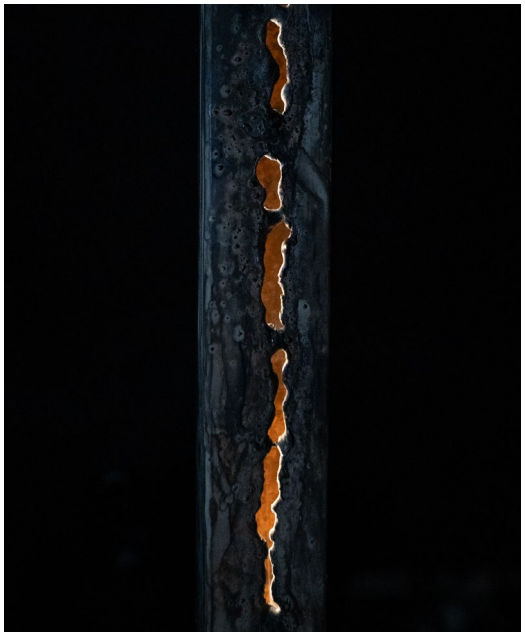

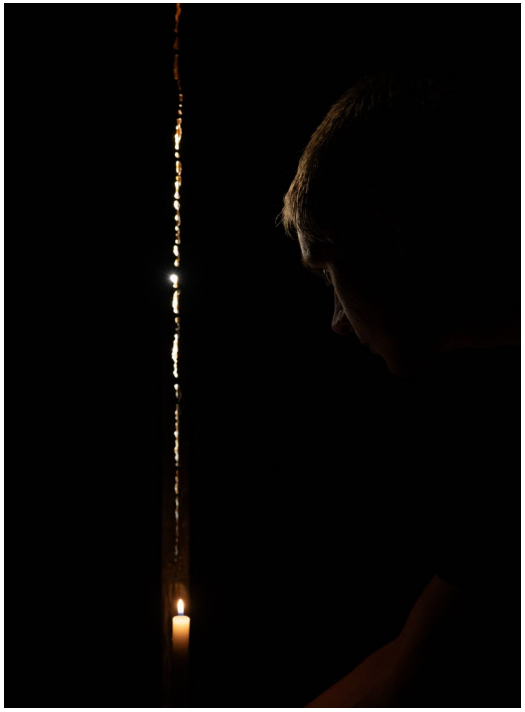

First prototype

Video of the first prototype (unlisted, please do not share): vimeo.com/marcociceri/high-light

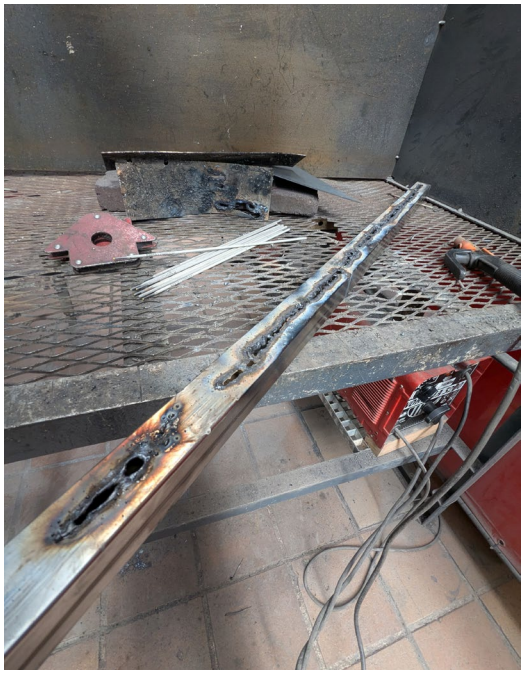

Making of the first prototype

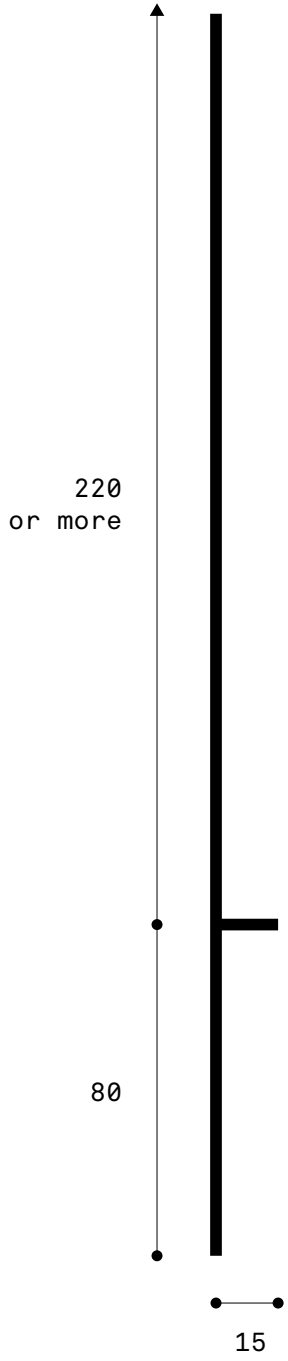

Space and size

Possible installation of multiple beams in a room with columns

Ideal space

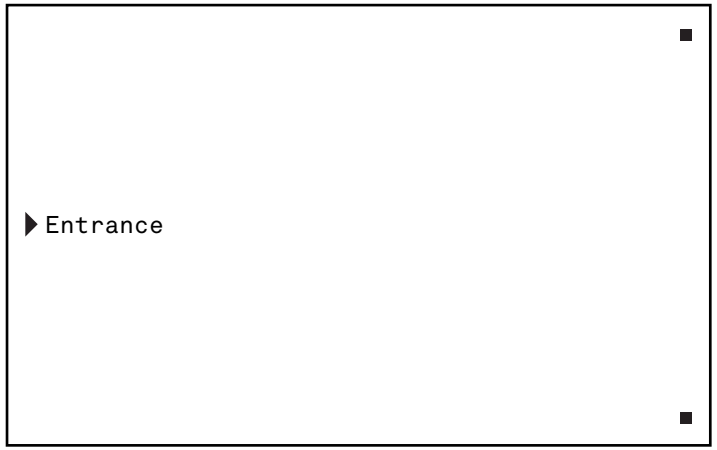

Possible room placement. Dimension min. 4 × 4 m

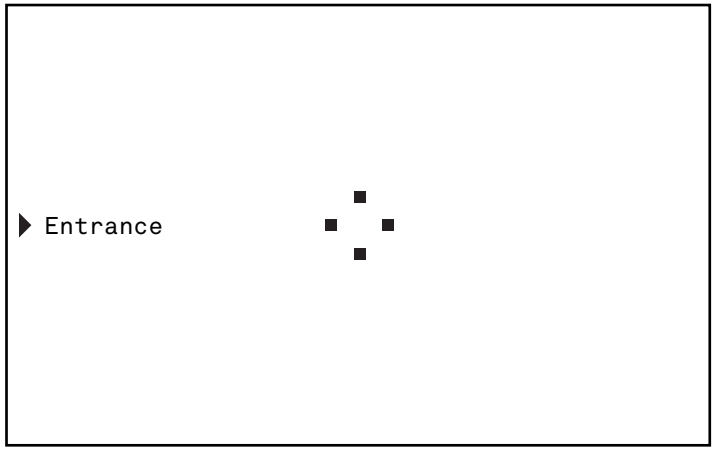

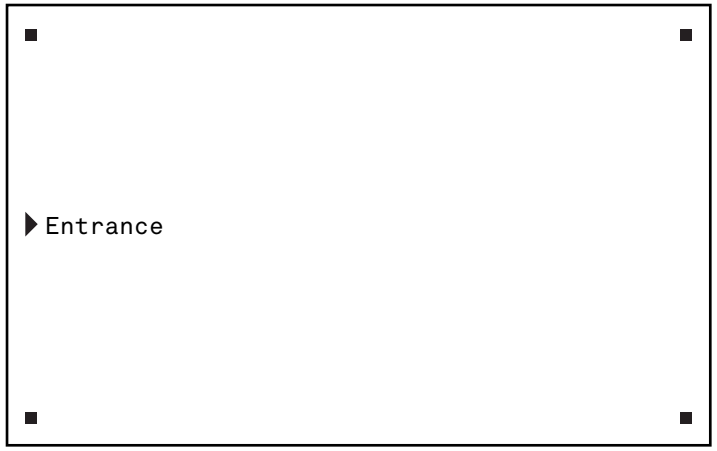

Possible layouts with a set of two beams

Possible layouts with a set of four beams

Contact and info at marco-ciceri.com